

STAFF PARTICIPATION IN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

The Board of Education recognizes and encourages the rights of its employees as citizens, to engage in political activity, but they are restricted from doing so while on school district property and during work hours. Employees may not use their employment by the Board as an endorsement of their individual political views.

Adoption date: December 1, 1995