

SCHOOL BOARD LEGAL STATUS

The Board of Education is a seven-member board elected by district residents. Each member of the Board serves for three years. The terms of office of Board members shall not all expire in the same year. Board members are responsible for school district management and policy-making.

The legal status of the Board is that of a corporate body established pursuant to the laws of New York State. Any liability of the district is a liability of the Board of Education as a corporation and not that of the members of the Board as individuals.

The Board recognizes the school district is subject to the restrictions of the legislature and agencies designated by the legislature even though the district is an independent unit of government. Close cooperation shall be maintained with other local governments.
