

Learning Disabilities/Special Education Resources
Available At The John C. Hart Memorial Library

In 1991, Yortown Special Education PTA (SEPTA) was one of the first SEPTA's in our area to open a library. This collection is totally focused on information pertaining to Special Education and Special Needs. SEPTA hoped to answer the cry from area parents desperately seeking this type of information. Through fundraisers and donations, the inventory has grown, as has the request for information on these subjects.

Through SEPTA's continued efforts community awareness has increased, accelerating the need and availability of this material. In order to maximize the accessibility of this information, Yorktown SEPTA donated their SEPTA Library, originally housed in the Mildred E. Strang Middle School, to the John C. Hart Memorial Library. With the generous support of SEPTA's future fundraisers and continued community support, donations to the John C. Hart Library shall continue.
